

Restrictions

- Said property shall be used solely for residential or vacation cottage purposes.
- There shall be no temporary buildings maintained on said land, and this is the expressly include mobile homes and other types of moveable homes.
- There shall be no junkyards operated or maintained on the premises.
- The exterior of any building erected on the premises shall not remain unfinished for a period longer that twelve months from the time construction began.